Daniel's Promise

I love chocolate. I love its velvety texture, rich natural flavor and unmistakable aroma. Most of all, I love its unending possibilities. With the guidance of zealous Belgian Master Chocolatier, I learned the art of chocolate making and gained unconditional passion for excellence. Since then, for over 30 years, I have promised myself and my customers that Daniel's chocolates would always be created without compromise.

I guarantee our chocolates are made with:

- The finest cocoa beans ~ pure chocolate, imported directly from Belgium
- 100% pure cocoa butter, no substitutes
- All natural ingredients like whipping cream and butter, no hydrogenated fats,
- No preservatives

Today, this rare level of commitment to such demanding standards is what sets Daniel Le Chocolat Belge apart and keeps customers coming back for more.
